to inquiries about the preliminary mediation conferences over Mexican difficulties at Niagara Falls, after had conferred for an hour with President Wilson and reviewed dispatches from American Commission-Lamar and Lehmann. Following Secretary Bryan's announcement, unusual but reliable information was given in official quarters that Huerta had placed himself in the hands of the three institutionalist forces.

About ten days ago there were anti-American demonstrations and mobs all over the Mexican capital, he said, and several times the Whitehouse family was threatened with violence. In the midst of this the two children were taken to the street waving American flags. The children were captured by their parents and the flags hidden but the feeling against the family rapidly became more bitter until Dr. Whitehouse decided to leave the country.

U. S. Children Patriotic, Family Is Driven From Mexico

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 21.—The patriotism and reverence for the American flag of his two children, Mariana, 9 years old, and Horace, 6 years old, drove Dr. Horace G. Whitehouse out of Mexico City for several years, arrived here today to visit relatives.

point of view of the Spaniard exceedingly menacing.

WANT MEXICAN VIEWPOINT

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 21.—The South American mediators, in an informal conference today with the representatives of General Huerta, sought to learn in a general way the viewpoint of the Mexican representatives on various tentative plans for a solution of the Mexican problem.

The mediators pursued the same course with the Mexican delegates today as they did with the American peace commissioners last night. No formal mediation of the war was requested, but the mediators suggested steps looking to a settlement of the Mexican embroglio and learned the trend of thought of the delegates.

No proposals of a definite character had been made to the Americans and it was understood none were contemplated today with the Mexican mediators.

Minister Naon of Argentina described the informal sessions with each side as "talks" or "conversations," indicating that what was being done was chiefly for the guidance of all parties in shaping the course of the mediation in the talk of the mediators with the American delegates.

First Step in Mediation. Today's conference between the mediators and the Mexican delegates marked the conclusion of the first step in the attempt being made to compose differences between the United States and Mexico.

Much interest is displayed here in an explanation circulated today respecting the erroneous dispatch of yesterday saying Huerta would resign. As received the dispatch read:

"Huerta gave out a statement saying he authorized peace delegates to offer his resignation, if necessary to arrange peace."

Correspondents of the Associated Press in Mexico City were immediately cabled to send Huerta's verbatim statement, which order disclosed the word "denying" had been received "saying" and the sense of the dispatch.

YOUNG WIFE VANISHES MAY SACRIFICE HERSELF

MRS. J. B. BUNYARD, WHO HAS DISAPPEARED IN OAKLAND AND WHO IS BELIEVED TO HAVE TAKEN HER LIFE.

J. B. Bunyard, a young mechanic of Selb, Contra Costa county, today sought police assistance in the search for his missing young wife, who telephoned to him that she was in this city and intended to end her life in order that her poor health should no longer be a drain on the family's slender resources.

The Bunyards have an infant daughter six months old. Six weeks ago Mrs. Bunyard placed herself under the attention of Dr. Sweetzer, who prescribed complete rest and relief from all mental troubles. Knowledge that her husband could ill afford the medical hospital and nurses fees which were piling up, believed to have prompted the young mother to leave Martinez on the morning of May 14. She was stricken with nervous prostration on the way and telephoned to Dr. Sweetzer, who advised the hospital at Martinez. Instead of going there, Mrs. Bunyard came to Oakland whence she telephoned to her physician, Dr. Sweetzer, announcing her determination to "end it all" and cease being a burden to her husband.

HUSBAND SEARCHES.

Since then nothing has been heard from the missing woman, and the young husband has given up work home and the care of his baby to come to this city and appeal for assistance. He believes she is in the city.

of killing herself, the body would have been found by now.

Mrs. Bunyard is 24 years of age and a brunette, tall, slender and comely. She is about 5 feet 7 inches in height and weighs 120 pounds. She may be wearing one of the three different garments—a brown tailored suit, a sort of tan one-piece dress with black velvet belt, or a blue silk dress. She had but one hat, so far as is known, a straw with blue veil. She had also a light blue wrap of light material and cut-away design.

reversed. As filed the dispatch was a denial by Huerta that he had authorized his delegates to agree to his retirement from the presidency. An investigation is proceeding to fix responsibility for the error.

WASHINGTON IN TOUCH.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan were in direct communication early today with Mexican mediation negotiations at Niagara Falls.

As soon as the President reached the executive offices after breakfast Secretary Bryan arrived. The special telegraph wire connecting the White House with the headquarters of the commissioners was working and several messages are said to have been exchanged between the President and commissioners Lamar and Lehmann.

"Things at the mediation conference are progressing smoothly," Bryan declared.

When the President and Mr. Bryan began their conference there were several communications from the American commissioners which arrived overnight. These messages, it was reported, set forth outlines of a procedure suggested by the mediators and also some preliminary ideas on which may be based the first interchange of peace proposals.

Evacuation of Saltillo Reported

JUAREZ, Mo., May 21.—A telegram was received today from General Felipe Angeles by H. Perez, head of the Constitutional information bureau here stating that Saltillo was evacuated last night by the federals.

The garrison of Saltillo is said to number 12,000 men under General Joaquin Maas. The town was believed to contain large stores of ammunition and supplies and if the report of the evacuation is true it is probable that a large quantity of munitions of war will fall into the Constitutional hands.

The only road of retreat open to the federals is said to be south to San Luis Potosi. The 250 miles separating the two towns is an arid desert and it is believed here but a small portion of the federal garrison will be able to win through to San Luis Potosi. A strong Constitutional force under command of General Carrera Torres is besieging San Luis Potosi and between the towns a large force under General Luis Gutierrez, called the Tiger of Concepcion del Oro, is waiting to cut off the federal retreat.

ASK DEATH OF PARTY.

EL PASO, Tex., May 21.—Constitutionalist leaders here reiterated today the statement that the elimination of Huerta alone would not suffice to pacify the country. They declared that the absolute operation from power of the party supporting Huerta would bring about peace.

TO MAKE COTTON INTO CLOTH.

JUAREZ, Mexico, May 21.—The cotton confiscated by the constitutionalists after the battle of Torreón will be manufactured into cotton cloth instead of being sold in the raw state if the plans of the constitutionalists are brought to completion.

The Spanish refugees from whom the cotton was confiscated have secured an injunction from the United States courts preventing the shipment of the cotton through the United States.

CIVIL ADMINISTRATION

JUAREZ, Mexico, May 21.—Martial law will be replaced by civil administration throughout the territory controlled by the constitutionalists as fast as conditions will permit.

LAWYER IS SWORN IN AS TEMPORARY JUDGE

Sworn in this morning by District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes as a judge of the Superior Court under a provision of Section 72 of the Civil Code Attorney Lincoln S. Church occupied the bench today in the extra sessions department in the case of Joseph Arado, accused of an offense against Anna Stefanoff.

This is the third time in the history of the county that an attorney has been requested for judicial aid.

With all the departments of the Superior Court crowded and no suitable judge available from surrounding counties the District Attorney found himself in a quandary.

By the provision of the code any attorney admitted to practice before the Supreme Court may on emergency be sworn as a judge with the consent of the attorney on both sides of the case.

Statement of Oakland

MELLEN FAVORS RAIL MONOPOLY

Believes It Would Be Successful if Controlled by the Government

In the New Haven. I disposed of all my stock."

"Why did you personally favor the consolidation of trolley lines with the New Haven?"

"Because consolidation would result in better service, lower rates and greater satisfaction to the public. I believe the public is better served by a monopoly of transportation than in any other way. I think, however, the monopoly should be controlled by the government."

"What do you think railroads generally are doing about the matter?"

"I know of nothing a railroad can do."

"What is your opinion of the government's policy?"

"I was 'SOME' DREAM."

"If Mr. Morgan had not died how far would you have gone in this dream of consolidation?"

"To heaven, I suppose."

"Didn't Morgan have more power than any state government under which you operated?"

"He never tried to exercise any such power."

"He was in control of the New England situation?"

"I best answer that by noting the old saying, 'Where McGregor sits there is the head of the table.'"

"What would the meetings of the directors of the New Haven have been like without Mr. Morgan?"

"About as tame as a lot of cows without a bull."

CONSULTS ROOSEVELT.

Mellen, after testifying regarding an offer of $20,000,000 made by Chas. W. Morse for the purchase of steamships owned by the New Haven, said he came to Washington and consulted President Roosevelt.

"Mr. Morse," he said, "had acquired control of nearly all the steamship lines of the Atlantic coast. He wanted our holdings and I finally got a definite offer of $20,000,000 from him. I wanted to sell, but I was a great admirer of President Roosevelt and I thought a matter of that kind ought to be laid before the President of the United States. I saw him and he was anxious, apparently, that Morse should be checked by the government."

"I told Colonel Roosevelt that as it was expected the bill being prepared by Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of commerce, would contain a clause preventing railroads from owning steamships, it was believed to our advantage to accept the Morse offer."

T. R. OFFERS HELP.

"Herbert Knox Smith and Commissioners Prouty and Knapp were present, having been called in by Mr. Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt told me 'I can only promise you, Mr. Morse, for myself, that if you do not sell your lines I will promise you so far as I am concerned while the law remains as it is, you shall experience no trouble from me in your ownership of what you call the New Haven.'"

"When was the bill put in by Attorney General Bonaparte?"

"I think in 1907."

"Why was the provision preventing the railroads from owning steamships left out?"

"I imagine it was because Mr. Roosevelt kept faith with us."

When former President Mellen of the New Haven took the stand today Mr. Folk, taking up the acquisition of the Rhode Island trolleys, asked him:

"What assurance did Senator Aldrich give you to be transmitted to the New Haven directors?"

"I don't remember any," Mr. Mellen replied.

Mr. Mellen further said that the United Gas and Improvements Company refused to separate the Connecticut and Rhode Island trolleys.

DEFICIT NOT MADE UP.

"Has the deficit that resulted from the purchase of the Rhode Island trolleys ever been made up?" Mr. Folk asked.

"No, but I am confident it will be," said Mr. Mellen.

"So you paid $19,000,000 or $20,000,000 for property worth about $8,000,000?"

"I don't accept your valuation of $8,000,000."

"How do you estimate the value in a case like that?"

"When I value a purchase I consider its prospective value; what it ultimately will be worth."

Mellen declared in the Rhode Island trolley transaction he was assisted by various members of the board of directors.

"Was their influence exerted to induce you to acquire these trolley lines?" asked Mr. Folk.

"I never have known," responded Mellen, "a large transportation matter that was not backed by influence. The fact is that in the acquisition of these electric lines I was working toward a great principle."

"Do you think control of that kind fair to the public?"

"The control must be as was contemplated in New England, or it must be in the hands of the government," answered Mr. Mellen, with emphasis.

"You regard control by one man as a good thing?"

"That is a misnomer. No one man could control it. I had more bosses when I was president of the New Haven at a salary of $60,000 than when I was a clerk at $50 a month."

In response to a question regarding the acquisition of trolley lines Mellen said:

"My interest in the Massachusetts trolley was personal. I bought them myself and paid for them with my own money. I would have lost money if the stock had gone down. It went up and I made money. I made a total of $225,000."

A very enjoyable afternoon was the portion of the Hill Club this week, when three hostesses entertained. Mrs. L. E. Farrell, Miss M. Raymond and Mrs. S. Newsum divided honors at 41 Lake avenue, when members of this pleasant organization listened to a talk by Miss Mabel Thayer Gray of Ebell Club, Miss Gray, who has spent many months in Europe of late, told of her visit to Lourdes during the time of the yearly pilgrimage. Current events were skillfully handled by Miss Phoebe Smith, and Miss Edith Stetson contributed a group of songs. Mr. Earl Little also sang, the first number being Robert Burns' "My Bonnie." "The Alps," by Rubenstein, came next, followed by Schumann's "Trill Not Complain." "The Wanderer," by Schubert, concluded this group of songs, which added so much to the afternoon's pleasure.

As customary refreshments and an informal social hour followed the literary and musical program.

The next meeting of the Hill Club is to occur next Monday at the residence of Mrs. C. A. Black, 634 El Dorado avenue. This is to be the last gathering of the year and a full attendance is expected.

performances, that form of entertainment so popular in California, and which gains added impetus year after year. The marked beauty of the symbolic performance given by the student body of Mills this spring gained much from the circumstances of its setting.

Against the destruction of this spot the old tradition is advanced that while the population of the world is rapidly increasing, the amount of God's earth remains "put." Natural theaters in the outlying districts of a great city are too rare to be considered, lightly, and Mills' College graduates, who are nature lovers, are going to do everything in their power to prevent intrusion of the steel rail into this beloved campus.

TO ADDRESS STUDENTS.

Two hundred students comprise the graduating class from the Berkeley High School this year, and the Rev. William Day Simonds of this city, who is to make the commencement address, has chosen for his theme "Success Through Service." The exercises are to be held in the High School auditorium on May 29.

A benefit performance to assume musical form is being planned complimentary to Mrs. Salano, widow of Alameda's once famous pioneer harpist, Professor Salano.

The concert will be given on the last Monday of the month.

The Truth Is Good Enough

Just think what the Truth about Foreman & Clark tells you. Here are two modest men who started but a comparatively short time ago with almost no money at all, but with an absolute determination to do right, to buy right, to sell right, to serve right—and that simple determination has built up in five years positively the largest exclusive clothing firm in the United States.

The Truth Is $25.00 Suits Are Sold Here at $15.00

These $25.00 Suits are all wool, without a thread of cotton in them.
These $25.00 Suits will retain their shape and we're here to back that up to the very limit.
These $25.00 Suits come to us from the very best manufacturers in the country, designed, cut and finished RIGHT.
These $25.00 Suits ARE $25.00 Suits by all the standards any sensible, unbiased man could possibly set up in any fairness.

Truth Has Accomplished More for Us

Believing that we will make the most possible profit by making small profit on the greatest possible number of sales—honestly believing that—we are paying the very top notch price for our clothing. Think of what that means, especially when we can afford to and do buy more Suits to sell at $15 than any other two stores in the country put together. Think of what that means, when in addition to this great buying power, we have cut out all fancy expenses, all foolish fol-de-rols, all mahogany showcases, all marble columns, all glittering chandeliers. No wonder then that

NAVY COLLIER COMING NORTH

Saturn Will Come From Matatlan for Supplies and Repairs.

MARE ISLAND, May 21.—The navy collier Saturn is coming north from Matatlan according to radiograms received at Mare Island today and it is expected that the fuel ship will come here for supplies and while at the naval station it is likely that she will undergo some slight repairs. The Saturn is to return to Matatlan, Mexico, about the middle of June with some stores and fuel for the vessels of the patrol squadron. Lieutenant-Commander Woods, U. S. N., navigating officer of the cruiser South Dakota, will make the trip up the coast on the Saturn as he has been ordered to the yard hospital to undergo treatment. The refrigerator ship Glacier sailed yesterday afternoon from San Francisco bay for Matatlan, Mexico, with fresh meat and provisions for the vessels of the Pacific patrol fleet. The Glacier is due to return to Mare Island in June and while she is at the station will be docked and receive some necessary repairs. The yard officers had intended to dock the Glacier this month but Rear-Admiral Howard, U. S. N., commanding officer of the fleet, would not allow the ship to remain here long enough to be docked. The machinery department officers at Mare Island are still waiting for the arrival of machinery and tools for the repair ship Prometheus and it is not believed that vessel will be ready to be commissioned until some time next fall.

You'll Grow Over "GETS-IT" for Corns!

It Will Startle You How "GETS-IT" Gets Corns Every Time.

"One, two, three! That's about as long as it takes you to apply 'GETS-IT,' the new, plain, simplest, surest corn cure the world has ever seen. Corn fussing is all over."

"This is No Place for a Corn. No Corns Any More. And when you have used 'GETS-IT,' you will know it. Corns, corn pains and calluses are absolutely done for, from the minute you apply 'GETS-IT.' Forget the bother of soaking, plaster, greasy salves that spread and make toes sore and raw. Little dough-like cotton rings that press on corns, for hot blisters, rashes, and the danger of blood poison from drawing blood, and the contraband and hazardous that make corns worse. 'GETS-IT' burns the flesh, never fails. 'GETS-IT' is sold by all druggists, the new, plain, simplest, surest corn cure the world has ever seen. Corn fussing is all over."

FASHION EXHIBIT RIVALS THEATERS

Lingerie Demonstration and Tango Attire Dance Attract Women.

The lingerie fashion demonstration, which is at the height of its popularity, is the most attractive shows of the week, not even barring the local playhouse attractions. Beautiful living models, arrayed in dainty, shimmering boudoir garments, appear in a temporarily-constructed boudoir, erected in one end of the eastern room, and all of the season's latest creations are shown. In order that milady may be thoroughly instructed in all of the latest tango garments, one of the petite models actually dances the craze dance, as she demonstrates the tango garter, the tango pantalette, the tango princess slip and the dancing corset. A professional corsetiere delivers a lecture on each style of corset appears and shows the ladies how to lace and unlace this foundation, as well as how to put on the more novel models. The standard Gossard, as one model described it, "the only corset for natural movement," is shown in every build and price. Then the Bon Ton, that corset especially built for the stout figure, and the Royal Worcester are prominently displayed in all makes. LECTURE ALSO. The dancing and athletic corset comes into its own this year, the "no-bone" effect, made out of the new tricot material, yielding every movement and posture. The lecture is worth much to those attending, as many practical and useful points are brought out and demonstrated. The new tango trouserettes, made of Italian silk in the prevailing shades of pink, apricot, baby blue and green, are shown. The deep accordion pleated flounces of shadow lace in white, cream and ecru are shown on all of the latest trouserette garters, slips. Everything is of the soft, clinging effect, with as little trimming as possible, the bands and fastenings of elastic, covered with ribbon of the shade of the garment. The boudoir slippers this year are daintier and sweeter than ever before. Made of the material to match the combinations, hose, cap and negligee, they combine in their design with the modeling of the shoe. The material is sheered or tacked full onto the sole, and caught across the foot in all sorts of artistic ways. Some have the regulation slipper back, while others are of the sandal style. Capwell's are showing a full and extraordinary line of these wonderful and new accessories. SHADES AND SHIMMERS. The pajama "nightie" is shown for the first time in Oakland, and is a dream of loveliness. They come in all of the dainty shades and in all of the sheer and new textures material.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—Devised to maintain automatically the equilibrium of aeroplanes were described by Orville Wright in an address at the Franklin Institute last night when he was presented with an Elliott Cresson medal for his work in establishing on a practical basis the science of aviation. He predicted that travel in the air soon would be as safe as on land and asserted that 90 per cent of the lives that have been lost in aviation would have been saved if the aviators had been able to feel the angle at which their planes were traveling. Dr. Edgar Fahs Smith, provost of the University of Pennsylvania, was also presented with a medal for his work in chemistry. Two other scientists, Karl Paul Gottfried Linde, of Germany, and Joseph Maria Elder, of Austria, had medals forwarded to them.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS TO WELCOME GRAND PARLOR

Preparations are being made for the grand parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West to convene on June 8 in the Scottish Rite Cathedral on Madison street.

The Native Sons of the bay cities will join Native Daughters in a parade through the business district on the evening of June 8 in honor of the arrival of the delegates.

The visitors will represent all parts of California, fully 1000 to attend the sessions of the grand parlor.

Immediately after the parade there will be a reception in the cathedral. The address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Frank K. Mott.

An officer of the Native Daughters and one of the Native Sons will extend greetings to the strangers.

Bands and drill teams will lead the procession.

Mrs. Sarah Sanborn, chairman of the reception committee, and Mrs. Adeline Mosher, grand trustee, chairman of the general committee, are arranging the literary program for the convalescence.

OREGON NOMINATIONS ARE STILL IN DOUBT
PORTLAND, Ore., May 21.—With only three counties remaining to be heard from, returns of last Friday's primary elections showed that Henry L. Benton of Klamath Falls, was leading Justice Charles L. McNary of Salem, for the fourth place on the Republican supreme court ticket by 132 votes.

While the returns from all but three counties were held to be complete, the official count of the entire vote will be required to decide the contest.

PASTORS IN COUNCIL TALK MENTAL HEALING
CINCINNATI, May 21.—The third day of the council of ministers, which is being held in conjunction with the ninety-fourth annual session of the general convention of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, was again today with an executive meeting of the ministers. Later a public session was held.

S. Wheeler of Providence and Rev. J. Paul Dresser of Brooklyn led a discussion on "Mental Healing."

Men Pay Homage to Mother's Friend
"I am not surprised to observe the number of men who come into the store to purchase 'Mother's Friend,'" remarked a leading druggist.

It is a happy thought to send a husband to the drug store, "Mother's Friend" is applied externally over the abdominal muscles.

"Mother's Friend" is a gentle, soothing, lubricant, penetrates to the innermost of nerves beneath the skin and has a marked tendency to relieve the muscular strains to which these broad, flat abdominal muscles are subjected. The cords, tendons and ligaments are thus permitted to stretch without the corresponding surface strains so often involved during the period of expectation. This in part accounts for the entire absence, in many cases reported, of nausea, morning sickness and other distresses, such as irritation of the epidermis so often the case when this gentle form of lubrication is neglected.

"Mother's Friend" has been highly recommended by a host of women who know from experience and by men who know from observation. Write Bradfield Regulator Co., 308 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and we will send you a valuable little book to expectant mothers.

"Peg O' My Heart" Is Drawing Crowds;
Varieties Lure

Pretty Peggy O'Neill with her delightful frolic and her quaint manners has captured Oakland audiences with her splendid interpretation of the title role of "Peg O' My Heart." So great has been the demand for seats for this extraordinary engagement that Managers Glass and Oliver Morosini have decided to give an extra matinee tomorrow afternoon.

The House of Bondage, adapted from the book by Reginald Kaufman will be at the Macdonough for eight days following "Peg O' My Heart."

ORPHEUM
A remarkable bill, in which every act is absolutely new, is drawing crowds to the Oakland Orpheum this week.

Roshanara, the wonderful oriental dancer, heads the list of stars. Her intense dance and the Snake Dance held the multitude spellbound. They said she is the only authentic exponent of the dances of the Far East. Certainly she is like no one else.

In which pathos and droll humor are cleverly combined, is one of the biggest hits of the show. A dozen fine actors interpret it and the audience enjoys it to the limit. It is a story of war times in New Orleans and Irvin Cobb, who wrote it for the Saturday Evening Post, made it masterpiece.

McDevitt, Kelly and Lucey are a big hit with their "Piano Mover" skit. Two big handsome fellows, Kimberly and Mohr have a lot of smart songs which with their piano playing and comedy talk makes them favorites.

Slender Jarvis, a great singer and actor with Virginia Dare, a stunning beauty whose songs are the talk of the city, contribute one of the prettiest features on the program.

Mabelle Adams, a splendid emotional actress, a Washington, D. C. native, Edgar Allan Woolf which enables her to register a big personal success.

Nick Verger, the newsboy Caruso; Weston and Claire, a pair of smart dancing and singing lads; and some special pictures showing the Ball of All Nations in San Francisco, round out the great show.

The management announces that Blanche Bates, one of the greatest actresses of America, will appear with her company in a new play next Sunday, the title being from the play of the M. Barrie. It is entitled "Half an Hour" and is said to be equal to anything Barrie has ever written.

PANTAGES
We have all heard of and many of us have talked to the man who crossed the Alps with Napoleon—or was it Hannibal?—the Rubicon with Caesar, the Delaware with Washington, and so on, but the man who went to school with "Dave" Belasco, as he familiarly called the great one, has just been found. The man's name is James J. Pantages, a veteran actor, who is at the Pantages this week with John Lancaster and a little company presenting the comedietta, "The Jolly Rascal."

On Thursday night the Pantages management will entertain the members of the Oakland baseball club as its guests. The boxes have been placed at their disposal.

After the matinee Saturday, the children will be given a reception on the stage. The Pantages will offer eight acts. The headliners will be Lottie Meyer and her six dancing and swimming girls, including the well known Oakland girl Vivian Marshall; and Lesley's Six Hoboes.

COLUMBIA
Pleasure stocks are up and climbing higher with every sound of the ticket at the Columbia Theater this week, frenzied finance never caused more excitement than is apparent in Dillon and Speculators.

In a musical way, Dillon and King's latest play is a pleasing as any produced by the comedians since their introduction to Oakland.

Alford, Duncan and Wilber, the Trio De Luxe, have important parts in the musical program and appear to excellent advantage in several cleverly arranged ensemble numbers.

Commencing with the matinee next Sunday, Dillon and King will present for the first time in Oakland their most recent musical success entitled, "Miss Innocence." The forthcoming production will introduce the new leading man, James Dillon. The newcomer hails from Seattle where he appeared with much success in dramatic stock and musical comedy. Possessed of a pleasing voice, ability and good looks, Dillon should become as popular as the comedian of the same name.

IDORA PARK
Never before has so much been given in the way of amusement for so small an outlay as this year at Idora Park. A splendid band under the leadership of Director A. T. Thaviv, the Russian musician and impresario, and a group of grand opera singers give free concert every afternoon and evening in the canopied amphitheater. Admission to the park means admission to the concert.

To make the concert more comfortable, the management has placed the band in the theater building on cold nights, where exceptional musical beauty has been given every Tuesday at the week symphony concert.

A cause of added popularity has been the spruce up of the racing coaster. Since then there have been more people returning for a second ride than ever before.

The biggest sensation at the park this year is contained in the motorhome, where "Red" Armstrong and "Reckless" Vernon ride their death race every afternoon and evening.

OAKLAND PHOTO
"The Gamblers," by Charles Klein, author of "The Third Degree," and "The Lion and The Mouse," is the feature of the to-day-to-Saturday program at the Oakland Theater.

"The Gamblers" benefits by a cast of players that is of rare excellence. As Wilbur Emerson, George Soule Spencer, known in Oakland, gives a dramatic performance.

Ethel Clayton gives an interpretation that could not be surpassed. She grasps to the full the opportunities of the role of "Catherine Darwin," created by Jane Cowles. Earl Metcalfe, always capable, leaves a vivid impression of "James Darwin."

Congressman Pays Tribute to Knowland.

During the debate on the bill making temporary provision for nomination and election of United States Senators, Congressman Knowland was in charge of the measure, and for the enlightenment of his fellow members mentioned that California had provided for such elections both as to primary and general elections.

This statement, with others, prompted the following remarks of the part of Congressman Sloan of Nebraska, who, following assertion that he was glad this State had so provided, said:

"I understand that the senior Senator from the State of California has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election, and combined with that fact is an opportunity for the Golden State to elect a man who will become a great Senator from California (applause) and whom I now address."

"We know that the gentleman from California in his ten years' service in this house has distinguished himself among his colleagues who admire and honor him as a forceful representative and wise lawmaker. His ability, age and experience peculiarly fit him for the high office and I know the Pacific Coast State could make no better selection." (Applause.)

No men know Joseph A. Knowland better than those who have served with him in the House of Representatives, and this tribute to the leading candidate for the office of United States Senator is but one of a few paid him by those who have watched his course and have commended his work, his signal abilities and his understanding of the duties of a legislator.

Mellen Tells an Amazing Story.

Charles S. Mellen, formerly the head of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, is telling an amazing story to the Interstate Commerce Commission, now engaged in investigating the affairs of that corporation. It appears from his testimony that the late J. P. Morgan manipulated the business of the system to the personal advantage of his banking house, spending millions for short lines for connections, paying many times the value of the properties bought, and, inferentially at least, pocketing the difference. According to the story told by Mellen, when the latter wanted information concerning the nature of these transactions; when he asked what had been bought and what the details were, he was brusquely "turned down, refused access to the details and finally, when trouble ensued, was made the 'goat' for all failures, physical and financial."

Upon the shoulders of Mellen has been lodged the responsibility for the wrecking of the New Haven. To him has been charged the frightful calamities which have occurred during the past few years. Its physical state, its run-down operating department, its financial condition which has brought misery to the homes of thousands of investors, have all been laid at the door of Mellen, who is one of the foremost railroad men of the nation and a capable man.

It appears, however, that his turn has arrived. Smarting under a condemnation he believes unjust, he is revealing all he knows. He is making public the details of many transactions. His testimony is very interesting. Among other things he relates that $35,000,000 was paid for a four-track road, the Westchester, twenty-six miles long, which, even though it runs through a populous section, is some price for a railroad. It also appears that $11,155,000 was expended in the acquiring of the Boston & Maine. Yet when Mellen suggested to Morgan that he ought to know how this sum had been spent he was curtly informed that this expenditure, which he thinks should have been about $5,000,000, was practically none of his affairs. Alluding to this "goat" business, Mr. Mellen made this significant statement:

"When trouble befalls any large corporation somebody must bear the burden. Others may go to Carlsbad or to some other cure, but somebody has to stay and fight it out."

In the case of the New Haven it appears that Mellen was the man selected to stay home and "fight it out." It is lamentable that one man should be compelled to carry such a burden of odium, but inasmuch as Mellen is now being given a chance to vindicate himself, perhaps the country, in getting the inside details of high finance methods, such as appear to have been used in this New Haven case, will be enabled as the result of its knowledge to adopt such measures as will be necessary to avoid their repetition.

That the system was mismanaged is evident. That human lives were needlessly sacrificed as a result is too well-known to need reiteration. That small stockholders were bankrupted is certain. Yet the martyrdom of a few is oftentimes the salvation of the many. It required the sacrifice of scores of lives in the Iroquois Theater in Chicago to compel places of amusement all over the nation to provide adequate protection against fire. Perhaps the disasters resulting from the conduct of the New Haven have served a purpose, although it is deplorable that such occurrences are necessary in the conduct of the economics of a nation.

Eastern Methods of Wine Making.

Federal Judge Van Valkenburgh of Kansas City has a matter under consideration which may affect the business of wine-making to a degree. It appears that sixty barrels labeled "Ohio claret wine, containing harmless coloring," were seized by federal officials under the law prohibiting misbranding. The government pure food department contended that the wine was not claret, but "pomace." The difference between claret and pomace seems to be this: Claret wine is made from the juice of the grape. But in Ohio, after the claret has been extracted the pulp and skins are mixed with water and sugar and allowed to ferment, the product being pomace.

The makers of this concoction contend that the addition of sugar and water to the pulp and skins simply puts in artificially the coloring matter that put there and the liquid is just as much claret as the real thing.

The government should win under the pure food law, but an after-product. These makers of the concoction are in support of its position has caused the government of some of the world's greatest experts on wine to be called in.

VIVA LA HUERTA!

—BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST.

Oakland Manufacturers' Exposition.

Beginning June 8 and continuing until June 20, Oakland's Pure Food and Household Economy Show, a manufacturer's exposition, will be conducted. The prospectus issued indicates that the displays will be extensive and instructive. There will be four departments, as follows:

Pure foods and fruits, soaps, cleansers, preparations. Household necessities, labor saving devices for the housewife, model kitchen and household fixtures, gas and electrical appliances.

Varied industrial furnishings for the use of the home and family, economy cloths, furniture, musical instruments, automobiles, motorcycles, accessories.

Land products, model home sights, lot acreage, farm summer homes. Profitable land inducements by reputable owners, concerns and representatives.

This exposition will be arranged for the benefit of the manufacturers of pure foods, growers of good fruits and manufacturers of household labor saving, electrical and varied appliances, home necessities, land and home exhibits and is supported by the Alameda County Retail Grocers' and Merchants' Association. It will be housed in a canvas tented arena at Peralta Park. Those in charge predict an attendance of between 250,000 and 350,000.

As understood this exhibition will afford local manufacturers opportunity to display their goods for the benefit of the purchasers in this district and will be designed to attract attention to the fact that many manufactured articles for which money is now sent away from home can be bought here; also that in many respects the home product is superior to the imported. This feature is one to be highly commended, for because of lack of information many persons are induced to spend money for products made elsewhere that can be obtained of local people.

Another idea is the teaching of household economy by the use of the latest devices calculated to save expense and at the same time reduce the amount of labor necessary, which is an excellent one.

By no means the least important is the land products feature and the opportunities for good investments. This last mentioned will attract the outsiders especially, and may be the means of inducing local persons to purchase more liberally than heretofore.

All the purposes are good ones and the results cannot fail of being beneficial. Oakland and the bay cities generally should rally to the support of this display and make it a success by participation and encouragement.

Wright and Wrong.

While nothing can be pleaded to excuse or condone theft and a breach of trust, the case of Wright, cashier of the State University furnishes reasons for some reflections.

He was handling hundreds of thousands of public money. The methods of his office in dealing with the banks of deposit were loose and unbusinesslike. His salary was grossly inadequate. It has been stated that it was only $823 per month.

From the university has long emanated a flow of criticism and counsel as to the affairs of the people, relating to the wages of labor, attacking the parsimony and impeaching the humanity of the employers of labor. The ills of society from white slavery to intemperance have been charged up to the underpaying of labor.

Under the circumstances we have to advise that the reforms so urged by different and voluble members of the university, begin at home, and that those who demand the public money given to that institution be paid enough to keep them from resigning in order to resist the temptation to steal.

The Santa Cruz Sentinel has an editorial under the caption, "A Funny Thing About Tips." Dunk's ideas of humor are odd, to say the least. If there is anything funny in being compelled to pay tips for the same service, we cannot see it.

FACTS AND FIGURES

TEACHING BOYS TO ROUGH IT

Any public school boy who may be cast on a desert island, like Robinson Crusoe, will know how to take care of himself and get along comfortably if an experiment succeeds which has been started in the American Museum of Natural History and similar institutions in other cities.

Thirty-five boys of 8B grade, age about 13 years, were chosen for the class here. All of them prepared for the lessons by reading "Robinson Crusoe." At their first visit to the museum they were taken to a small lecture hall, where the teacher had placed a collection of stone implements, wooden, shell and gourd utensils, baskets, pottery and weapons.

As the boys handled and acquainted themselves with the construction and utility of these articles the teacher pointed out to them that these were the materials on which primitive man had used he had to exercise his powers of invention. This was a lesson on the beginning of things, and it was thoroughly learned by the boys before they were taken to anything else.

The instruction then proceeded to show the increase of man's power over matter, as illustrated by the evolution of tools and the gradual development of a perception and memory into reason. A river pebble was shown as the earliest hammer; next the hammerstone, with pits hollowed to fit the thumb and fingers; then the shaping of the implement to augment its utility while diminishing the effort required to produce effect. Axes and knives of flint, chert and obsidian were examined, and symmetry and adaptation, as brought out by successive human periods, were closely observed.

The object lessons include study of the primitive digging stick, precursor of the hoe and plow; bows, arrows, slings, shell and iron pointed spears; implements designed for the preparation of food and their development into modern dishes. Emphasis was laid on the persistence of form in certain articles, and on the consequent ingenuity and invention from simple origins which led to the complex machinery and processes of modern times.

One lesson took up fire making and the preparation of clothing, and then the instinct for making useful things shapely, and for expression of the human love of beauty in the beginning of art.

When class work was finished some of the boys called at the museum of their own accord to ask the instructor further questions concerning classroom subjects, showing that the class had not only interested them but had made their eager to learn more.

Ordinance Passed by the City Council of Alameda Provides Safeguard.

ALAMEDA, May 21.—If Mayor Frank Otis signs the new ordinance which was passed by the city council at the last meeting, automobilists will have to stop their machines ten feet behind man Bullock introduced the measure and his motion that it be adopted was seconded by Councilman E. J. Probst. The motion was passed, Councilman G. W. Stewart, G. T. Morris and Conrad Roth voting in the negative.

Mayor Otis vetoed a somewhat similar measure, but the features he objected to were eliminated from the Superintendent of Schools C. J. Du Four asked the council to appoint a committee to inspect the Alameda high school with a view to making expansions on the building. Councilman Morgenstern said that this was a matter of importance and moved that the building and grounds com-

Upon the motion of Councilman Probst the police were requested to stop the dredging in the estuary until

The following bids for installing a fire protection system in Webster street roadway were received and referred to the fire and police committee and the fire and police commission: C F Adams, $1570; A. A. Theslau, $1785; Contra Costa Construction Company, $1550; Michael Murphy, $1395; A. J. Greer Company, $1488.

A resolution was adopted forming a city-planning commission, to be composed of members of the council street committee and four citizens to be appointed by the mayor.

The request of the board of health that the old Horton house at 1140

High street be condemned was put over for two weeks.

Resolutions were adopted for the improving of the approach to the High street bridge. The city is to proceed to have the work done at the expense of the abutting property owners.

Councilman Roth moved that the owners of property at the northwest corner of Willow street and Lincoln avenue be asked to move back the fence and provide sidewalk space. The motion was adopted.

SHREDDED WHEAT
MAN IS COMINGSample Packages to Be Put in All Homes by Auto.

"The proof of the pudding is in the chewing of the string." That's an old saying that originated in the days when grandmother knew how to make puddings; when a person could get a good idea of the taste and rich flavor of the pudding by chewing the string that was tied around it.

But the pudding that grandmother made is a thing of the past. Nowadays the only proof of the pudding is in the eating of the pudding itself.

That's the theory that lies behind the wonderful sampling campaign conducted by the manufacturers of shredded wheat, located at Niagara Falls.

Every year this company puts into the United States, Canada and the British Isles a free sample package of shredded wheat. These packages are not scattered in the usual promiscuous way by hired distributors. They are distributed from the company's clean and handsome automobiles, by the company's own men, and these men are instructed to give a package only to the housewife, or some responsible head of the house in each home. Each package is accompanied by a handsome lithographed circular which illustrates many of the more delicious fruit combinations that can be made with shredded wheat biscuits.

The "shredded wheat man" and his automobile will be in this city in a few days and every home will receive one of these togetherness reminders of your favorite breakfast cereal, fresh from the cleanest, finest, most hygienic food factory in the world.

The concert in the Ivory ball room of the Hotel Orelin next Tuesday night, for the benefit of the music school of the Oakland social settlement, will be a musical treat.

Silvio Lavatelli, who has been in this country but four weeks, and who recently appeared before the Century Club in San Francisco, is pronounced by critics to be a wonderful exponent of the cello. He has consented to make his first public appearance in Oakland at this concert. The Pastore sisters, always a treat, will assist, as well as the Misses Inez and Leona Merchant, who will do the first scene from "Hansel and Gretel," in costumes.

Many people do not know of the immense amount of good the music school is accomplishing. The children, who number nearly 1600, have but one piano and two violins to practice on, and they "line up" as early as 6 o'clock in the morning in order that they may have their turn. The low fee of 10 cents a lesson is charged the little folks in order that they may not feel the sting of charity.

Mrs. Louisa Wagon-Coplin, who is largely interested both in the school and the concert, tells many interesting and pathetic stories about these children who are starving for music. The musical gift has been given them, especially those who have Latin blood in their veins, in no small degree.

Music is deemed by settlement workers in the large Eastern cities to be the greatest channel in uplift work.

The children of Oakland's "East Side" are not lacking in willing teachers, but instruments must be provided for the little crowd, and the returns from the concert next Tuesday night will be used to provide additional ones. The patronesses announce that their endeavors are meeting with gratifying success. The handicap is that the city's philanthropic citizens do not know of the music school, and they ask that additional impetus be given it by those who learn of the good work.

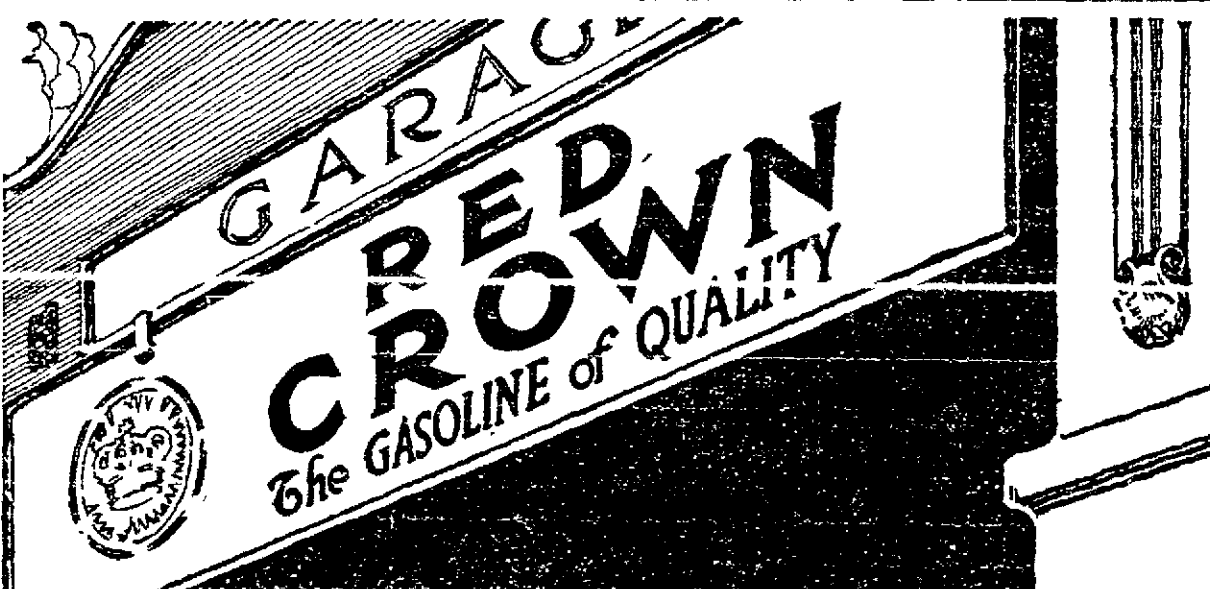

KEY ROUTE CALLS
FOR FERRY BIDSTwo Boats Are Wanted for the Direct Traffic to Exposition.

In accordance with announcement made several days ago, the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway has called for bids for the construction of two new steel-propeller ferry boats for use in the direct service to the Exposition grounds. Specifications have been mailed to shipbuilders about the bay and June 1 has been named as the term limit for proposals.

Time is to be of the essence of the contracts and it is stated in the specifications that the award of the contract will take into consideration the date of completion. No definite price has been set, as the plans describe the type of boat wanted, as designed by John S. Hoppe of San Francisco, and the lowest bidder who can promise the earliest delivery will get the contract. It is estimated that the boats will cost about $200 each.

THUG USES BLACKJACK.—John Hayes, 612 Capp street, was within a few feet of his home early this morning when a lone highwayman struck him with a blackjack and demanded his money. He dodged the blow and gave battle to his assailant. While the pair was struggling, 12, Dougherty and Roy Baker, who live in the neighborhood, happened along and the robber fled. Hayes was taken to the hospital where a wound over the left eye caused by the blackjack blow was dressed.

CHIEF IN SOUTH.—Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen was absent from his desk this morning, being away on a brief business trip to Los Angeles. He will probably be back by Sunday, returning Saturday night.

ALMOST every town and hamlet on the Pacific Coast has its garage or supply store where the Red Crown sign is displayed. Wherever you see that sign it means Quality, Uniformity and Reliability in gasoline. It means that wherever you motor you can obtain the same high grade fuel, and so avoid the troubles that come with changes of gasoline.

Make it a practice to ask for Red Crown, the real gasoline—a straight product of refining—not a mixture.

Red Crown signs are furnished to all dealers handling this gasoline. Watch for the sign or ask our nearest agency about delivery in bulk.

ARRAIGNED FOR ALLEGED "HOLD OUT"

Glen D. Sizer, clerk in the public health department of the city, and accused of embezzling funds from Phillipsburg, a building contractor, was arraigned in the police court this morning. He will come up for preliminary examination some time next week.

Sizer, who has been in the employ of the city for several months, was taken into custody on charges returned by Schuyler, who declares that, as a confidential clerk Sizer conducted a systematic "holdout" of funds. So far no accurate figure of the alleged embezzlements have been compiled. Sizer is declared by the police to have made a confession.

TRIES TO SEE WHITMAN;
REVOLVER FOUND ON HIM

NEW YORK, May 21.—Joseph H. Fath, who said he was a wireless operator, was arrested yesterday while trying to see District Attorney Whitman. In a suitcase Fath had with him, detectives who made the arrest in one of the outer offices, found a loaded revolver. The man was locked up on a charge of violating the law against carrying weapons.

Detectives yesterday traced a wire from a window of Mr. Whitman's private office to a building a block away. It was supposed to be a wire to the wire.

S. P. WILL DEED
LAND TO THE CITY

Two acres of land in Peralta Park, just south of the municipal auditorium, will be deeded to the city. It is declared by officials, through arrangement with the Southern Pacific, this being done in consideration of the closing of streets as voted yesterday by the city council. The streets to be closed were portions of Bay Shore, Goss, Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth streets along the south end of Oakland right of way. The land tendered the city in return for this consideration will be used as a corporation yard and the transfer will give the city a large block of holdings in the new "made land" district at the lower end of the lake. The land is valued at about $50,000.

Out of Sorts

THAT IS, something is wrong with baby, but we can't tell just what it is. All mothers recognize the term by the lassitude, weakness, loss of appetite, inclination to sleep, heavy breathing, and lack of interest shown by baby. These are the symptoms of sickness. It may be fever, congestion, worms, croup, diphtheria, or scarlatina. Do not lose a minute. Give the child Castoria. It will start the sluggish vegetable into operation, open the pores of the skin, carry off the foetid matter, and drive away the threatened sickness.

MRS. ROBERT MACK, PROMINENT HOSTESS OF SOCIETY.

WEDDING invitations in their variety are interesting this season. Most of the spring events are announced in "old English," engraved, but there are still invitations in script or small print for important weddings in the east, and a remarkable one from England yesterday is printed in silver.

There is no denying that they're more socially independent abroad, where they don't really care whether cards are engraved or not. Even invitations to "Their Majesty's Afternoon Party" at Windsor last year were printed, as they doubtless will be this year. They are usually a shock to Americans on the queen's list.

The silver cards are especially bizarre and interesting for the marriage they announce. The bride is Miss Mabel Tevis Gwynne, who once lived in Bakersfield, where her father tried ranching for a time and who is named for Mrs. Will Tevis (Mabel Pacheco). They are very small, on heavy paper, three and one-half by four inches, and an imposing card in silver fills the limited space at the top. Then Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gwynne request the pleasure of "Miss Blank's" (this is written in company to the marriage of their daughter, Mabel Tevis, with) Mr. Ralph Pomeroy Aldersee on Tuesday, June 2d (not second), at St. Mary's Abbott's church, Kensington, and afterward at the Vere hotel. At the bottom of the card is the name of the bridegroom, Bushy, and R. S. V. P. There isn't a hint of the time, but it may be a French wedding as understood.

The most remarkable thing about it is that it isn't remarkable in England. Silver wedding cards are quite usual. Several of the Oakland weddings are announced on cards that are a fashion of the hour, a fashion of two generations ago revived. The invitations are engraved in old English on very broad square paper with a heavy raised margin. Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Henshaw request the pleasure of your company in this manner, for Miss Pearl Cawston's marriage to William Elmore, as do Captain and Mrs. William Matson for the wedding of Miss Lurline Matson and William Roth. But it is not so dignified and an American bride follows her fancy—along certain engraved lines. It would never lead her into silver print.

STONE-HINKLEY WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Helen Stone and Grayson Hinkley at the Elbert Stone residence in San Francisco last evening was a very beautiful affair. The house was decorated with a profusion of pink roses, sweet peas and the beautiful pale pink gladioli, and in garlands that cascaded gracefully from the tall vases or baskets. The bride's costume was one of the handsomest wedding gowns of the season. The skirt was covered with ruffles of duchesse lace and the bodice of soft white chiffon was trimmed with rare old lace. A point lace veil was fastened to a beautiful old shawl presented by the groom's mother, Mrs. J. G. Hinkley, and over it fell a second veil of tulle. The bride bouquet was of butterfly orchids and valley lilies and held the tulle run, thimble and coin that are usually concealed in the wedding cake.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids, Miss Helen Hinkley, Miss Hazel Stone, Miss Dorothy Stone, Miss Marian Stone and Miss Katherine Banning of Los Angeles were in banner gowns of pink tulle and the bridesmaids carried old-fashioned bouquets of pink and white roses in lace paper holders. Miss Hinkley held a basket of pink and white roses with tulle.

The best man was George Bowles, and Franklin Hanks, Walter Macke and Nelson Borrell were the ushers. Among those at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stone, Mr. and Mrs. John Gaillet, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Somers, Mr. and Mrs. William Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fenimore, Rev. C. S. Tutton, Mrs. Carrie Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. William Ralston, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hobart, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Huesey, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sicken, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Meek, Mr. and Mrs. P. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hinkley, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Venable, Mr. and Mrs. George Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Hinkley, Mr. W. J. Lander, Mr. and Mrs. Doris Wilshire, Miss Lurline Matson.

MATTHEWS-JOHNSON WEDDING.
Invitations to the wedding of Miss Hope Matthews and William Elliott were sent out on Tuesday evening, June 2d, at half past 8 o'clock, in Trinity Episcopal Church. There will be several attendants and the bridesmaid's gown and decorations will be in a color scheme of pink and green. The bride is one of society's favorites, and any number of entertainments have been given in her honor since her engagement was announced.

BE GAY

Copyright, By LILLIAN RUSSELL.

GAYETY is a great charm in man or woman. Laughter is healthful. Keep your annoyances to yourself. Work out your own problems within the privacy of your own rooms; do not carry them over the threshold. No one is ever interested in another's troubles; they may be sympathetic and considerate and helpful, but it is never by preference. A sweet, unobtrusive smile is the best of all.

It is about refreshing the world, not depressing or oppressing it. Heron compares laughter with the billows of the sea: "The billows clash and collide with each other as they strive to find their level. A fringe of snow white foam, feathery and frolicsome, follows the changing outline. From time to time the receding wave leaves behind a remnant of foam on the sandy beach. The child who plays hard by picks up a handful and the next moment is astonished to find that nothing remains in his grasp but a few drops of water, water that is far more brackish, far more bitter than that of the wave which brought it. Laughter comes into being in the self-same fashion. It indicates a slight revolt on the surface of social life, it instantly adopts the changing form of the disturbance. It also is a froth with a saline base. Like froth, it sparkles. It is gayety itself. But the philosopher who gathers a handful to taste may find that the substance is scanty and the after taste bitter."

This is all true in a way, but is it not better to have the pearly foam of a hearty laugh and take the after chances of a bitter taste than to have the bitter taste without the light hearted gayety? I believe in accepting the duties of life, social and otherwise, and seriously observing them, but not as a dismal funeral service. "Live and let live" is an old-fashioned motto, almost obsolete today. A kind word to people in your employ does not lower you in any one's estimation. A smile of appreciation can bring out better work than a scowl. So why not be gay? The whole world is our for the taking. As your quality grows so you are able to take the best of the world, not the scanty substance with the bitter taste. Leave that to those who stand still. Gather the foam of gayety, sparkling and refreshing. Sprinkle it about you generously and you will find no bitterness left behind after it is gone.

Remember: Don't stop to philosophize. Take the world as a gift.

Lillian Russell

Answers to Queries.

MISS X. Y. Z.—The face should be washed at least once a day with warm water. Cold water is not cleansing. Wash the face with the warm water and good soap, then dash cold water over it. Rub your skin good in the hollows under your eyes. Be careful you do not press the eyeball when doing this and do not get any of it into the eyes. Every woman should get at least eight hours' sleep. The hollows may be caused from some internal trouble. This is usually the case. Kidney trouble may be the cause; anaemia or indigestion may also be the cause. The only way dark circles can be cured is to first remove the trouble. If you care for my formula for cleansing cream I shall gladly send it to you if you will send me a stamped-addressed envelope.

J. A. S.—If the eyes are washed with a good eye wash daily it will make them brighter and stronger. Here is a good formula: Eight ounces of distilled water; add one ounce of 20 per cent solution of boric acid and ten drops of spirits of camphor. If the camphor smartly dries the mixture with pure water. Just a plain boric acid solution will do. Use it to the strength of ten grains per pint of distilled water; heat and strain. When cool use in an eye cup.

BILLYEN—The "whiteheads" may be easily removed from the face and without leaving a scar. First, bathe the face in warm water to soften the skin, then open each seed acne with the point of a fine needle which has been sterilized by dropping into hot water. The hardened mass must then be pressed or picked out. Apply peroxide.

ROY—If you wish to remove the blackheads you must be persistent in the treatment. Once a week will not help you; you must do this each night. Follow the directions given and you will soon remove them, I am sure. Any druggist will fill the recipe for cold cream.

THE NECK AND CHIN.

Massage Movements.

(1) Cover the neck with massage cream. Throw back the head, inhale and turn the head from side to side of the neck. Repeat five times.

(2) Throw back the head, taking care always to keep the back straight, so wrinkles will not form behind the ears, and turn the head from side to side. Repeat five times.

(3) Hold the head erect and put plenty of cream behind the ears. Place the first and second fingers of both hands back of the ears at the hair line, one at each side of the skull bone, and draw the fingers firmly down to the base of the neck. Repeat ten times on each side.

These exercises are for all necks, whether too fat or too thin, the idea being to strengthen the muscles.

Flabby Neck.

If the skin under the chin is loose and wrinkled, do the following massage daily, using all the cream the skin will stretch. Throw back the head and about the first three fingers of the right hand with cream. Beginning at the chin and using a rotary movement work over the flesh from the chin to the hollow of the throat. Repeat, starting a little to the left and so on, until the entire part of the neck beneath the jaw bone has been treated.

Double Chin.

(1) Place the first two fingers of the right hand on the left side, one above and one below the jaw bone, and bring them briskly across to the right side of the face. Do this six times. Now, place the first two fingers of the left hand on the right side of the face and draw them to the left side, repeating six times.

(2) Throw back the head, take a little of the loose flesh between the first and second fingers and roll it slightly five or six times; continue this treatment over the parts of the chin that show superfluous fat.

WARNING.

Do all your exercise before a mirror so you can note the effect. Do not use too much cream, as it will clog the pores and increase the oil. Be careful of your carriage; hold the back erect, the chin up and in. Remember that muscles can only be strengthened by exercise and whether there is too much or too little flesh, we get improvement only by toning up the muscles and feeding the flesh. Be generous with your cream; choose a good massage cream and give the skin all it will absorb.

A pupil writes me asking about "cold cream," and if it can be used for massage. Anything may be called a cold cream, but the general custom among the manufacturers of toilet foods is to label as "cold cream" a toilet cream intended only for lubricating, protecting and cleansing the skin. Such creams are very nice, but they do not feed the skin.

A "massage cream" or "skin food" contains fats that the skin can absorb, "bleaching cream" contains some preparation to whiten the skin. In some cases such a preparation is added to the massage cream so it can be used for massage and bleaching purposes.

And boosted a pretty San Jose girl as candidate for an exposition trip to Portland and Seattle.

And won the trip by lining up all the commercial organizations.

And she threw down "My City Oakland" by meeting a northern man while on the trip, falling in love with him and becoming engaged to him.

And then came back to Oakland, just as if nothing had happened.

Wouldn't it just FLAMBOOZLE you? That's why Oakland's boosters were surprised when pretty Lizette Krause, Oakland's candidate recently in the Exposition Girl race and at that time backed by all Oakland organizations, Commercial Club especially taking up her fight.

BIG LINER ADRIET AND HELPLESS IN NEW YORK HARBOR

'WATERLAND' PLAYTHING OF TIDE

Breaks From Tugs Conveying Her to Dock

NEW YORK, May 21.—The giant new liner Waterland broke away from tugs conveying her to dock today and began drifting down the Hudson, carried by the tide. At times she swung broadside across the river.

In the grip of the strong ebb tide, the big steamship was helpless. She was carried steadily down stream toward the Battery.

After the vessel had drifted more than a mile the tugs succeeded in getting her in tow again, and she was headed up stream under control.

Waterland, the biggest steamer in service, arrived in New York harbor today on her maiden voyage, from Hamburg. Her run yesterday was 594 miles, and her average speed an hour was 23.9 knots.

The Waterland was launched April 1, 1913. She is 457 feet long, 100 feet beam and has a tonnage of 58,000. She carries one commander and four captains, and a total crew of 1,284.

NOMADIC WIFE IS SUED FOR DIVORCE

Husband Alleges She Often Went Away, Coming Home Ill-Tempered.

Intermittent absences of Florence E. Shaw, from her home at 1000 Broadway, according to her complaint for divorce filed today, alleged that she left him at different times for periods of one month, six weeks, one day and thirteen months, always returning in a bad temper. He declares that she was in the habit of throwing tea, coffee and other household articles at him, and that she threatened to burn down the house.

James J. Payne told his wife that it cost too much to support her and that he was weary of his nervous condition, according to the complaint of Sarah H. Payne. She says that her husband was in the real estate business and that he treated her with extreme cruelty. The climax of her woes came when he took her to live on a ranch four miles from a railroad, where she had to attend to the pigs. She says that finally he deserted her.

Alice Malos accuses George Malos of gambling away the money which he should have used for household expenses. She alleges that he would return frequently at 2 o'clock in the morning after a night at cards, and declares that his habitual treatment of her was cruel.

Two hundred dollars in two years was the amount that Frederick R. Turton allowed his wife for expenses, according to Hattie M. Turton. The couple were married in Napa in 1904. The defendant is a manufacturer and, according to the divorce complaint, is amply able to provide for a household.

Alberta E. Fennell filed suit against Harvey Bennett on the grounds of failure to provide.

HERO FIGHTS FOR HOME LAWSUIT ENDS ODYSSEY

JOHN LUNDERMAN, UNITED STATES HERO, WHO IS WAGING A FIGHT FOR HOME.

JUDGE IS KINDLY

Alleged Fraud Drives Couple Into Court to Save Shelter

John Lunderman, a hero of Uncle Sam's navy who fought for his country's flag during 28 years' service on the seas, is today making a fight for his little home and ranch located in the Dublin canyon, which real estate men are alleged to have traded him out of for property of small value while his wife lay ill in a hospital. The case, which has been on trial before Superior Judge Waste, was continued yesterday until next Tuesday. The court intimated during the taking of testimony, that he would render his decision in favor of Lunderman and his wife, Mary.

J. D. Hall, a real estate broker, and Manuel Cusko said to now be a fugitive from justice, are defendants in the suit brought by Lunderman. They have set aside deeds to his ranch property, valued at $2500, which was exchanged for city property worth only $250 and mortgaged for $1500. The defendants asked permission to present further testimony as to the physical condition of Mrs. Lunderman at the time she signed the deeds in the hospital.

REBUTT BY JUDGE. "I can see little use of your putting on more testimony of this nature," said Judge Waste. "I am of the opinion that Mrs. Lunderman was not competent at the time the deeds were signed."

At the time of the exchange, Lunderman testified that the realty men represented that the property for which he was to exchange his ranch was worth $6500.

The history of Lunderman is remarkable. He wears medals given by Congress for "Fidelity, Zeal and Obedience."

Lunderman was the chief boatswain aboard the U. S. S. Concord under Admiral Dewey at Manila, bay who cut the cable connecting Manila with the outside world, on May 1, 1898.

Lunderman was aboard the U. S. S. Trenton at Samoa during the terrible typhoon which wrecked the ship in the early eighties, and caused international complications. The incident was the foundation for the naval play "Under Two Flags." Robert Louis Stevenson wrote graphically of the storm. Lunderman was washed ashore and took a prominent part in the subsequent events on the island.

IN SEVEN SEAS. Lunderman was a sailor aboard the U. S. S. Adams at Honolulu when Wilson captured him by routing the fugitive out of an oil tank. He was the man who cut open the tank.

Lunderman was aboard the U. S. S. San Francisco at an Indian seaport when the United States consulate was attacked. He received government recognition for his gallant services in assisting to protect the consulate from the attacking hordes.

He was on the warship that met

President Grant in Hongkong during his famous tour of the world.

He was at the siege of Pekin during the Boxer uprising and was among the few men who scaled the big wall in taking the city. He climbed the wall on strips torn from blankets.

Following the battle of Manila he was with the land forces fighting in trenches near Manila. There he received a gunshot wound in his right leg which placed him in a hospital. For five years he was in a hospital at Mare Island. After that, being incapacitated, he came to Alameda county and settled down on a ranch.

SORROW AT END. Now he is fighting in court to preserve the home for himself and wife during their declining years. It looks as if he would win again. His wife said she would give him another meal if he did.

Entering the service of the government at the age of 14 years on the U. S. S. Colorado in 1879, Lunderman saw continuous service for 28 years. When the big fleet rounded the Horn on its world cruise in 1908, Lunderman was driving a stage in the mountains. He was "discovered" by some navy officials and went to meet the fleet at San Diego. There he was made much of during the fleet's stay in Southern waters.

Attorney Frank Carr, who is handling the suit for the Lundermans, became interested in the case through friends. Believing that the naval hero had been the victim of "sharp practice," he took up the fight for him in court.

"I feel confident that the couple will have their property restored to them," said Carr today. "and it will be great satisfaction to be able to assist them in this way. Lunderman, who entered the navy at an early age, never learned to read or write, and his wife, who signed the deed while ill, thought that she was doing the best thing for them both without knowing much of business transactions."

BLOODY TRAIL LEADS TO FUGITIVE

Burglar Is Caught After Demolishing Window of S. F. Store.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Tracked by a trail of blood which led to a narrow alley in the heart of the Mission district, a burglar was captured today.

has spent most of his life behind prison bars, was arrested at 5 o'clock this morning after he had broken into a carpenter shop and a saloon and had attempted to rifle a grocery. He is charged at the city prison with burglary and attempted burglary.

Patrolmen Savage, Lang and Helling attracted by the crash of glass hurled to the corner of Twenty-third and Valencia streets, to find the show window in the store of Pietro Muzio, 1196 Valencia street, broken. There was no sign of the burglar, but clearly visible on the pavement were drops of blood, which they followed for blocks. The officers, with revolvers, trailed along until they came upon Davis covering in a passage-way on a side street. He was bleeding from a deep wound on his arm, which had severed one of his arteries, and had not the policeman caught him might have died from loss of blood. He was hurried to the Mission Emergency Hospital for treatment and then taken back to the scene of the burglary.

OBTAINS JIMMY.

It was found that he had entered first the carpenter shop of J. A. DeWald, 1205 Valencia street, where he obtained a jimmy. He next visited the saloon of Thomas Corcoran, 1201 Valencia street. There he found that the cash register was empty and helped himself to whisky. Bent on obtaining money and emboldened by his success thus far, he decided to try Muzio's grocery across the street. The door resisted his efforts to pry it open with the jimmy and he decided to smash the window, thus accomplishing his own capture.

Davis was arrested three months ago for grand larceny in the Mission district, and was sentenced to the county jail. He was given probation by Superior Judge Lawlor. Lang subsequently escaped from the prison van while enroute to the county jail and has not been since caught. Davis resides at 1621 Pala avenue.

When the task of "togging himself out" was finished he planned to see his publishers, meet a number of Progressive leaders and visit the American museum of natural history.

Late in the afternoon he intended to go to his editorial offices. He proposed to journey back to Oyster Bay at 4:30.

Drew Record in Sprints Gets O. K.

Colored Man's Performance Is Declared as Good as Any by Committee.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—The record of 9.56 seconds claimed by Howard Drew, the colored sprinter of the University of Southern California for the 100 yard dash, is just as good as any record could possibly be, and a whole lot better than some that have been allowed, in the opinion of the records committee of the Pacific Athletic Association.

After weeks of the most rigid and painstaking investigation, the committee has prepared such a report, and it will be presented to the association tomorrow night with the recommendation that Drew's record be recommended to the Athletics Union for adoption.

In making this announcement today, the committee also announced that the record of 15 seconds in the 120 yard hurdles made at the University of California May 2 by Fred Kelly of the University of Southern California, tying his own world's record, and the new world's mark of six feet 7 1/2 inches in the high jump, made the same day by Edward Beeson of the San Francisco Olympic Club, are considered good and will be recommended for adoption by the A. A. U.

The record of 9 minutes 31 1/2 seconds of Oregon Agricultural College will be for two miles made May 2 by Haggood recommended as the official coast record for that distance.

THE WORLD'S RECORD. Drew's record, which was made at the University of California on March 28, ties the official world's record.

Officials of the A. A. U. requested the P. A. A. officials to make a thorough investigation into the conditions under which the race was run. The investigation which included an examination of the stop watches used, investigation of the timers and a survey and measurement of the track, is commented upon as follows:

In the report by William Unmack, chairman of the records committee: "No record any part of the world has been subjected to such close scrutiny and investigation as the records committee has put through. Every phase has been thoroughly investigated. There is no question about Drew's ability. He has run in 9 and 3/4 seconds twice this season. A 9.4 seconds time and a ten second several times. Besides this he has been credited with 9.37 seconds at Los Angeles in an unofficial class meet at the University of Southern California. No man, present or past, has so verified his ability as a consistent breaker of even time as Drew has."

For about three weeks after marriage every woman thinks her husband is smarter than any other man of her acquaintance.

WANT 5-CENT ZONE MOVED

San Leandrans Appear in Streetcar Fare Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—The residents of the city of San Leandro began the battle before the State railroad commission today to compel the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railroad to extend to the eastern limits of the municipality a fare of five cents. A number of witnesses were called to the stand, all of whom testified in testifying that the majority of passengers on the cars alighted at Davis street, even though their destination extended beyond the five-cent zone.

Commissioner Alexander Gordon presided at the hearing and the fact that the commission had only recently extended the five-cent fare limit from Stanley road to Davis street, in order to accommodate the traction interests, was brought forward with great emphasis by the traction interests.

TOO LITTLE FAITH IN WORLD, BRYAN TELLS GRADUATES

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Asserting that there is a deplorable scarcity of "faith" in the world today, Secretary Bryan is of the opinion that there never was a time in the world's history when it is far better that we trust and be deceived occasionally than not to trust at all. Not only must we trust one another, but there are many things in life that we must take on trust—things that we do not understand and are mysterious to us. Even love is a mystery."

Secretary Bryan told the young women that they must have sympathy, too, adding that this was one of the qualities that made Thomas Jefferson a truly great man.

He Telephones Sweetheart, Bidding Farewell; Then Rents Room.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—"Goodbye, dearie, I'm going away," said Daniel Landers, of the Twenty-seventh Company, Coast Artillery, to his sweetheart, over the telephone at ten o'clock last night.

Where are you going so suddenly, inquired Miss Wilson.

"You'll know in the morning. You will get a note," was the reply and Landers hung up the phone.

Shortly before noon today, the girl who is employed at the California Baking Company, was notified of Landers' suicide at the Congress Hotel, 1590 Ellis street.

The couple had been sweethearts for some time. Landers was made jealous because occasionally Miss Wilson received attentions from other men. He called her up by telephone three times yesterday during her absence and it was 10:30 last night when he phoned that he would like to call. She told him she was busy sewing and that he had better postpone his visit.

FAREWELL MESSAGE. At 10 o'clock he telephoned again, bidding her goodbye. He then went up to the hotel and registered. This morning he was found dead from gas asphyxiation, having pulled the curtain from the wall, allowing the deadly fumes to pour into the apartment. The following note was left to Miss Wilson:

"Gussie, do not think you caused me to do this and I am sorry to leave a good girl. I have lost all I ever had that is worth while. I am willing that everything I have, if I have anything. God forgive me for what I am going to do. Goodbye. Do not tell my people what I have done. Just call West 7029 and tell Miss Wilson I am placed under six feet with what I have. Goodbye, Dan."

Miss Carmen Haldorn, Miss Wilson's cousin and room mate, when informed over the telephone of Landers' suicide, fell in a faint and was ill.

Landers' home and family are at Atlanta, Georgia.

Liner Goes on Rocks; Battleship Rescues 98

GALVESTON, May 21.—The Norwegian steamship Atlantis, which left Galveston May 17 for Tampico with 98 passengers, is around 100 miles north of Tampico and tugs have been ordered to her rescue. All the 98 passengers have been taken off by the United States battleship Connecticut, according to information received here.

No details of any accident to the Atlantis were given, but wireless messages for three days went out and the steamer was pounding to pieces. The Connecticut was called by the "S. O. S." call from the Atlantis at Tampico. Wireless messages brought the news here last night. It was believed the Atlantis went aground Tuesday night and that the Connecticut reached her early today.

Two powerful wrecking tugs were ordered from Mobile to the steamer's assistance.

Most of the Atlantis' passengers were foreigners, who fled from Tampico after Vera Cruz was occupied by the Americans.

The Atlantis is a 734-ton steamship plying between Gulf ports.

10 Years in Oakland
AAA-Prof. J. Brown
1550 SAN PABLO AVE. NR. KAHN'S.
I absolutely guarantee to make no charge if I fail to satisfy you in everything pertaining to your every-day affairs. An interview will convince you. Prof. Brown stands in a class by himself. He will throw light on your path; these few words make a lot to you. Is your business going right or wrong? are you making money or losing it? will you win or lose? I make a change or continue; what are the prospects for the coming year? Is your home life happy? are those you love true to you? will they be divorced? are there any accidents for me? Those are the questions to be considered seriously. I answer all those questions without you speaking a word.
